Biography

Nicole Stevens is a Senior Associate and Accredited Specialist in Coleman Greig's Family Law Team.

She has worked across the full spectrum of Family Law including property matters, divorce applications, parenting issues, financial disclosure, preparing court documents for final hearings and reviewing subpoena material.

Nicole is an Accredited Family Law Mediator and has experience dealing with complex parenting matters involving allegations of violence and abuse, drug and alcohol issues and matters with ADVOs.

Nicole ensures her clients always feel heard, understood, and protected.

Nicole has the ability to understand the very difficult situations that a lot of Family Law clients face and that is juggling their emotional needs, the needs of their children and a parent's desire to protect their children and ensure they have the best possible childhood leading into adulthood.
